Tragic Chapter of Secret
Assassination in Blue
Grass State.

(By Associated Press.)

Lexington, Ky., March 12.—That section of Kentucky long known as the feud district has been the scene during the past week of a trial the result of which is awaited with a lively interest. In the little court house at Jackson Judge James Hargis, notorious as the Breathitt County feud leader, is being tried for the alleged assassination of Dr. B. D. Cox. Back of the case lies one of the most bitter feuds ever known in Kentucky, and in which virtually every one in the county is involved directly or indirectly.

Dr. B. D. Cox was assassinated in April, 1902, as he was passing his child, who was ill. The fatal shots were fired from a shed belonging to Judge James Hargis. Judge Hargis and Sheriff Ed Callahan were charged with the assassination. Last June Ashbury Spicer, a noted feudist, made a confession in which he swore that Judge Hargis and Ed Callahan had employed John Smith, John Abner

SAYS THIS RELIEVES BACKACHE.

A well known authority says that backache is often Nature's danger signal which notifies the sufferer that the kidneys are at fault.

The following simple home-made remedy is said to relieve backache and cleanse and build up the kidneys. It taken before the stage of Bright's disease: Field Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle and take in tea-spoonful doses after meals and at bedtime.

A well known local druggist is authority that those ingredients are mainly of vegetable extraction and harmless to use, and can be obtained at small cost from any good prescription pharmacy. Those who think they have kidney trouble or suffer with lame back or weak bladder, should give this prescription a trial, as no harm can possibly follow its use, and it is said to do wonders for such people.

Always Keeps Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in His House.

"We would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kearney, editor of the Independent, Lowry City, Mo. That is just what every family should do. When kept at hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than if it has become settled in the system. This remedy is also without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given, as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croup appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand. For sale by P. B. Little & Co.

Something entirely new is now displayed in one of the windows of the St. Louis Racket Store. A 42 piece initial dinner set worth $7.50, this week $3.49. Watch and Grow.

DON'T NEED BREAD
Found True Food For Brain Workers.

A distinguished writer, 59 years old with the vigor of youth, writes of the benefits derived from proper food.

"I have been employed for several years in preparing a series of historical papers on the Civil War. The necessary research has been laborious and exhaustive, involving the examination of more than 100,000 pages of the official records.

The more than ordinary interest I took in the work for I have a part in the conflict caused incessant worry and proved too great a strain. Overwork brought on brain fatigue; constant worry did the rest.

"Insomnia followed then less of appetite followed by absolute inability to control my mind. Labor was without accomplishment. Remedy after remedy was vainly employed but the work began could not be dropped. And yet it seemed as if I was going to pieces.

"At last I tried Grape-Nuts food, and less than a week brought benefit; continued use resulted in steady improvement, and I soon found myself again in possession of full mental efficiency. I am ten years younger in looks and feelings than when I began to eat Grape-Nuts, over three years ago.

I can now easily write 2,500 words a day and maintain that rate of production without feeling overworked.

"Brain fat and insomnia are strangers to me now and my appetite is right, I sleep soundly and restfully, and arise ready for work. A sallow complexion has given way to pink and white, my weight has increased 30 pounds, and my cheeks, good spirits are in strong contrast to the crossness and irritability that had settled down upon me.

"I can safely say that Grape-Nuts food has given me a new lease of life. I can get along without bread and butter, but I cannot get along and achieve best results without Grape-Nuts."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. "There's a reason." Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in place.

AMUSEMENTS.

Lovers of Shakespeare will be afforded a treat with the appearance of Mr. Sanford Dorian and Miss Louisa Marshall in Romeo and Juliet at the Brooks tonight.

Florence Roberts, Thursday Night.
Perhaps no announcement of the current season at the Brooks will attract as much attention as the knowledge that Florence Roberts is to return for a night's stand Thursday night. No actress who has appeared in Guthrie in many years has been better remembered than Florence Roberts, who came to us almost a stranger last season in a magnificent production of "Zaza." The curtain tomorrow night will rise promptly at 8 o'clock.

Magnificent Costumes.
The costumes worn by Miss Louisa Morey in "The Holy City" which will be produced at the Brooks on Friday, were all made in Paris, and are not only rich and gorgeous as art can produce but are also historically correct. Special attention is called to her gowns in act one in the great scene before King Herod, also those of acts two and three, the latter being especially beautiful.

WHY SO WEAK?

Kidney Troubles May Be Sapping Your Life Away. Guthrie People Have Learned This Fact.

When a healthy man or woman begins to run down without apparent cause, becomes weak, languid, depressed, suffers backache, headache, dizzy spells and urinary disorders, look to the kidneys for the cause of it all. Keep the kidneys well and they will keep you well. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and keep them well. Here is Guthrie testimony to prove it.

Mrs. S. P. Miller, of 623 East Lincoln St., Guthrie, Okla., says: "My son used Doan's Kidney Pills and they did him more good than any other medicine of the kind he ever used. For several years he was greatly troubled with severe attacks of lame back and when one of these attacks was bothering him he was almost as helpless as a child. The sensations from the kidneys were so painful and frequent in passage during the night. Since he used Doan's Kidney Pills purchased at J. N. Wallace's drug store, the trouble has been so greatly lessened that he does not suffer anything compared to what he formerly did. Doan's Kidney Pills have proved a good remedy in his case."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
